

June 3, 2022 NMDAC Training: Integrating Social Determinants of Health into your Programs and Practice

- Agenda:

- 8:30-9:00 Meet and Greet, straightening out of tech issues
- 9:00-9:05 NMDAC Welcome and Updates- 5 min
- 9:05-10:05 Addressing Patients' Social Health Needs
  - Presenters: Kaitland Valencia, MS, CCHW& Natahlia Enoah, MS
  - Learning Objectives,
    - Summarize the implementation steps for assessing and addressing patient's social health needs in the healthcare setting.
    - List the benefits and potential uses of data derived from Universal social needs screening to steer SDOH programming.
    - Discuss the role of CHWs in contributing to positive patient outcomes.
    - Describe health outcomes related to SDOH interventions.
- 10:05-10:15 10 minute break
- 10:15-10:45 Kewa Health Outreach Program Lifestyle Change
  - Presenters: Yvette Martinez and Danielle Coriz
  - Learning Objectives
    - Describe how to recruit and retain participants in a Tribal Community
    - Identify ways to build and maintain personal connection
    - Explain the importance of flexibility when working within a Tribal Community
- 10:45-10:50 5 minute break
- 10:20-11:50 Intersectional approaches to public health initiatives
  - Presenters: Sunshine Muse, Donnyelle Miller, PMHNP,CNM,MSN, IBCLC, and Guillermina Osoria
  - Learning Objectives:

Tuesday, April 26, 2022

- Describe community driven public health
- Explain what intersectionality is in relationship to public health.
- Apply increased capacity to think outside of the standard American medical model when advancing public health outreach