

December 2, 2022 NMDAC Training: Dancing With Data: The Latest Diabetes Data for NM and the Benefits of Paths to Health Referrals

Virtual Meeting

- Potential CEUs: 2.5 hrs
- Time: 8:30- 12:05
 - Meet and Greet, straightening out of tech issues 8:30-9:00
 - Official start 9:00

- Agenda:

- 8:30-9:00 Meet and Greet, straightening out of tech issues
- 9:00-9:05 NMDAC Welcome and Updates
- 9:05-9:25 DPCP Update
 - Meet the new Director, Edwina Valdo
- 9:25-10:25 Prediabetes and Diabetes in New Mexico
 - Presenters: Wayne Honey, MPH and Dorine Conley
 - CEUs: 1 hr
 - Learning Objectives,
 - Understand the prevalence and distribution of diagnosed prediabetes and diagnosed diabetes in NM.
 - Understand differences between diagnosed prediabetes and diabetes and estimates of true the prevalence of both.
 - Understand the association between diabetes and health status and several chronic conditions
 - Understand estimates of testing for prediabetes across recommended groups as a likely explanation for the difference between estimates of diagnosed prediabetes and estimates of the true prevalence of prediabetes and the importance and value of diagnosis of prediabetes and referral to diabetes prevention programs.

- 10:25-10:35 10 minute break
- 10:35-12:05 The Benefits of Paths to Health and Workshop Wizard Referrals
 - Presenter: Lynnzy McIntosh
 - CEUs 1.5 hours
 - Learning Objectives:
 - Recognize Paths to Health New Mexico: Tools for Healthier Living (P2HNM) providing multiple prevention and self-management programs
 - Foster greater understanding of the benefits of using P2HNM for connecting health care to community- based programs
 - Increase your knowledge and comfort level in making referrals to community-based programs
 - Engage and enjoy the referral and feedback process